About the Donor

The Sarabande Scholarship was established by the late Alexander McQueen CBE to provide undergraduate and postgraduate students experiencing financial hardship with an equal opportunity to study fashion.

The Foundation offers scholarships to ensure that the creative talent of gifted, yet disadvantaged students, can flourish in their academic studies and creative development.

About the Scholarship

- £6,000 per year (£18,000 in total)
- For 1 Home, EU or International student
- For living expenses and course costs
- Accepted on the BA Fashion course at CSM

The scholarship will be assessed on the basis of financial need and academic merit. It will provide a contribution of £6,000 per annum towards living expenses and course costs for the duration of the course except the placement year.

Applications are encouraged from students who are unable to finance themselves through their studies but are gifted with an abundance of talent and dare to challenge the status quo.

Applicants must have a raw, original talent complimented by a strong drive to succeed in the fashion industry.

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible for The Sarabande Scholarship students must be:

- Accepted onto the full-time BA Fashion course at Central Saint Martins, UAL starting in October 2020

Key Dates

Closing date:

All applications must be received by Friday 15 January 2021.

N.B. We cannot accept applications that are incomplete or arrive late

Panel interview:

The panel will be scheduled for February/March 2021. The date will be communicated to shortlisted students.

How to apply

Applications for this scholarship must be made by filling in an online application form via the funding tab in the UAL Student Portal

In addition to the online application form, you will need to send the following supplementary materials:

1. An electronic portfolio sent via Dropbox to scholarshipapplications@arts.ac.uk containing one PDF document [50MB maximum] which should be an example of what you consider to be your best work for the Selection Panel to review, and must include:
 - a title page with your name and course title
 - an introductory page of no more than 500 words explaining your work, methodology and inspiration
 - up to 15 pages of images with each image numbered and clearly labelled showing the date of production and, if relevant, title, size and materials used in the original piece (see below for how to upload to Dropbox)
2. A copy of your most up to date Curriculum Vitae (CV) or Résumé (upload to student portal)
3. Evidence of your household income (upload to student portal)
Examples:
 - i. 3 months bank statements
 - ii. 3 months payslips
 - iii. External scholarships
 - iv. Investments

N.B. If you are a dependant then your household income includes the income of your parent(s) / guardian(s)
4. Evidence of medical condition (if applicable and upload to student portal)
Examples:
 - i. Doctors' / Hospital letters

N.B. These should be from a qualified medical practitioner, signed, dated, and from within the past 3 months
5. Evidence of financial hardship* (if applicable and upload to student portal)
Examples:
 - i. Credit card statements
 - ii. Overdrafts
 - iii. Expenditure
 - iv. Overdue rent letters
 - v. Bailiffs / debt collection letters

*Financial hardship refers to unexpected events or unforeseen changes that have negative impacts on cash flow or finances. For example: changes in income or expenditure, changes in employment status (such as losing a job or having hours reduced). This does not include last month's rent or bills.

How to upload to Dropbox

The following instructions are to guide you in uploading your portfolio via Dropbox:

- Go to www.dropbox.com and create an account (if you don't have one already)
- Login to your account using your username and password
- Create a new folder by selecting this icon  in the top right hand corner just before the search box. Be sure to use your full name as the name of the folder
- Open the folder and upload your portfolio into it by clicking on this icon  in the top right hand corner just before the search box. This takes you to your desktop to select your file(s).
- Once your file(s) are uploaded in the folder, right click on the folder and select the option 'share link'
- In the dialogue box, enter the address: scholarshipapplications@arts.ac.uk
- Please include your name and the scholarship you are applying for in the message box before sending

The assessment procedure for applications

Step 1:

After you submit your application, it will initially be assessed by the Student Funding Service at University of the Arts London, where it will be ranked according to financial need. This process will be based on the financial information you supplied in your application.

N.B. further evidence may be requested at a later date in order to complete the assessment.

Step 2:

Candidates who meet the financial ranking thresholds will be forwarded to an assessment panel for shortlisting. The assessment panel will consider the applicants based on academic merit and creative excellence.

Step 3:

Shortlisted applicants will be invited for an interview at Central Saint Martins. If you are invited, you will be required to bring your portfolio and examples of your work with you to the interview.

N.B. Interviews may be via video conference due to government regulations on social distancing

Step 4:

The panel will make their final selections by marking the quality of application and the readiness of the applicant to achieve highly in the discipline, and the applicant's ability to articulate how the Scholarship will contribute to their studies.

Terms and conditions of The Sarabande Scholarship

The following terms and conditions apply to acceptance on to The Sarabande Scholarship:

- The scholarship will provide a contribution of £6,000 per annum for the duration of the course except the placement year
 - Living expenses and course costs payments will be paid in termly instalments to the award recipient
 - Applicants must enrol on the course in the same academic year for which they have applied for funding. Failure to do so will result in either:
 - The application being rejected
- OR
- The award being withdrawn

- UAL will share personal data from completed scholarship application forms and portfolios of award applicants with the award donor. Information on academic progress and final results of scholars may be shared with the award donor
N.B. It cannot be guaranteed that applicants or scholars data will be as protected as it would be within the European Economic Area if the trustees of the donor are based outside of the European Economic Area
- Award recipients cannot be in receipt of more than one UAL affiliated or administered award. Applicants can apply for more than one award, but if offered more than one UAL affiliated or administered award, the recipient will need to choose which to receive
- Applicants can be in receipt of a UAL award and a non-UAL award (subject to the terms and conditions of the non-UAL award)
- Award recipients are expected to attend all timetabled classes and tutorials. The only exception to this is periods of absence due to illness and extenuating circumstances. Attendance will be monitored and any student with a poor attendance record may risk their award being terminated
- Award recipients are expected to attend a small number of College and University events to promote scholarship support to potential donors and to meet with scholarship supporters at these events (both during and after completing their course)
- The award will be terminated if registration/enrolment lapses on any grounds other than a temporary suspension of study due to extenuating circumstances
N.B. Any absence due to extenuating circumstances must follow university procedures
- No applicant for the award should make any decisions regarding their enrolment, financial arrangements, accommodation or other matters that rely on the outcome of their application being successful.
- All applicants will be informed of the final decision via email.
