

Short-term special graduate access policy

1. This short-term graduate access policy (“The Policy”) applies to you as a recent University Graduate whenever you access and/or use the University systems, services or Buildings under the Graduate Offer you have accepted.
2. Your status under The Policy is that of a Graduate Visitor to UAL and your extended University buildings and systems access privileges under the Graduate Offer are limited by and subject to the terms of this Policy and compliance with all reasonable directions of the University.
3. You agree to comply with The Policy for the duration of the Graduate Offer and for any period of extension that may be granted by the University.
4. Access to University buildings and use of University facilities is subject to your good and reasonable conduct in all interactions with UAL staff, students and other visitors and to full compliance with all directions from the University in relation to use of University property, Health and Safety requirements and Security Requirements.
5. Access to any University system or platform and any activity you engage in is subject to your compliance with the following University Policies:
 - IT Security Policies
 - IP Policy as it applies to Third Parties and to all directions from the University in relation to use of such systems.
6. The University shall use your personal data in accordance with the short-term graduate access Privacy Notice.
7. Failure to comply with any part of this Policy shall entitle the University to withdraw or suspend your access to University Systems, Services or Property with immediate effect and without notice at the sole discretion of the University.
