

Climate Emergency Manifesto Timeline

The journey so far...

Looking ahead

2021 - 2030

2020

- 2020 UAL develops environmental management system for Learning Teaching and Research
- 2020 UAL meets HEFCE and Office for Students carbon reduction target of 43% by 2020

2019

- 2019 UAL launches Sustainability Intern programme
- 2019 UAL ranked in the top 20 most sustainable university's in the UK
- 2019 UAL recognises the Climate Emergency
- 2019 UAL purchases 100% green electricity

2016

- 2017, 2019 ISO14001 accreditation achieved (Central Estates)
- 2019 UAL holds Climate Assemblies at CSM, Camberwell and Chelsea
- 2015, 2017, 2019 ISO50001 accreditation achieved (Central Estates)
- 2016 UAL launches Sustainability Manifesto in conjunction with staff and students

Academic Strategy and Delivery
Integrate climate into students' curriculum

Community
Encourage staff and student involvement in projects which involve climate action at UAL

2021 Carbon Literacy Training launches for all staff and students

Business Operations
Interventions and strategy to reduce UALs operational environmental footprint

Influence
Position UAL as a core part of the climate debate, particularly in relation to the contribution of art and design

2021, 2023, onwards Achieve ISO accreditation for Sustainable Learning, Teaching and Research

Carbon Reduction
Recommend actions to achieve a 1.5 degrees science based carbon reduction target no later than 2030