About the Donor

Launched in 2020, The William Callaway Bursary and Scholarship Programme will support students in need of financial support on the BA Textile Design and Graduate Diploma Textile Design courses at Chelsea College of Arts, enabling students to focus upon their studies and embrace the wider creative opportunities available to them as Chelsea students.

The William Callaway Scholarship and Bursary Programme was made possible by the generous support of the late Professor William Callaway, Head of School (1989-1992) at Chelsea College of Arts (formerly Chelsea College of Art and Design), through a gift in his Will.

About the Scholarship

- £15,000
- For tuition fees and living expenses
- One award
- For Home, EU or International students
- Accepted on the Graduate Diploma Textile Design course at Chelsea College of Arts

The scholarship will be assessed on the basis of financial need and academic merit, it will provide a contribution towards course tuition fees.

Applications are welcome from those who are in financial hardship and those who will benefit from postgraduate studies to realise their full potential

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible for the William Callaway Bursary and Scholarship Programme students must be:

- Accepted on the full-time Graduate Diploma Textile Design course at Chelsea College of Arts, UAL starting in the 2020/2021 academic year

Key Dates

Closing date:

All applications must be received by Friday 28 August 2020.

N.B. Applications that are incomplete or arrive past the closing time stated will not be considered.

Results will be announced in September 2020.

How to apply

Applications for this scholarship must be made by filling in an online application form via the funding tab in the UAL Student Portal

In addition to the online application form, you will need to send the following supplementary materials:

1. An electronic portfolio sent via Dropbox to scholarshipapplications@arts.ac.uk containing one PDF document [50MB maximum], which should be an example of what you consider to be your best work for the Selection Panel to review, and must include:
 - a title page with your name and course title
 - an introductory page of no more than 500 words explaining your work, methodology and inspiration
 - up to 15 pages of images with each image numbered and clearly labelled showing the date of production and, if relevant, title, size and materials used in the original piece (see below for how to upload to Dropbox)
2. A copy of your most up to date Curriculum Vitae (CV) or Résumé
3. Evidence of your household income
Examples:
 - i. 3 months bank statements
 - ii. 3 months' payslips
 - iii. External scholarships
 - iv. InvestmentsN.B. If you are a dependant then your household income includes the income of your parent(s) / guardian(s)
4. Evidence of medical condition (if applicable)
Examples:
 - i. Doctors' / Hospital lettersN.B. These should be from a qualified medical practitioner, signed, dated, and from within the past 3 months
5. Evidence of financial hardship* (if applicable)
Examples:
 - i. Credit card statements
 - ii. Overdrafts
 - iii. Expenditure
 - iv. Overdue rent letters
 - v. Bailiffs / debt collection letters

*Financial hardship refers to unexpected events or unforeseen changes that have negative impacts on cash flow or finances. For example: changes in income or expenditure, changes in employment status (such as losing a job or having hours reduced). This does not include last month's rent or bills.

How to upload to Dropbox

- Login to your account using your username and password
- Create a new folder by selecting this icon  in the top right hand corner just before the search box. Be sure to use your full name as the name of the folder
- Open the folder and upload your portfolio into it by clicking on this icon  in the top right hand corner just before the search box. This takes you to your desktop to select your file(s).
- Once your file(s) are uploaded in the folder, right click on the folder and select the option 'share link'
- In the dialogue box, enter the address: scholarshipapplications@arts.ac.uk
- Please include your name and the scholarship you are applying for in the message box before sending

The assessment procedure for applications

Step 1:

After you submit your application, it will initially be assessed by the Student Funding Service at University of the Arts London, where it will be ranked according to financial need. This process will be based on the financial information you supplied in your application.

N.B. Further evidence may be requested at a later date in order to complete the assessment.

Step 2:

An assessment panel will then assess the applicants for the award based on academic merit and creative excellence.

Step 3:

The selection panel will make their final selection by marking the quality of application and the readiness of the applicant to achieve a highly in the discipline, and the applicant's ability to articulate how the William Callaway Bursary and Scholarship Programme will contribute to their studies.

Finally, the selection panel makes their last decision on who to award the funding to.

Terms and conditions of the William Callaway Bursary and Scholarship Programme

The following terms and conditions apply to acceptance onto the William Callaway Bursary and Scholarship Programme:

- The scholarship will provide a contribution towards tuition fees and living expenses for the duration of the course

- Tuition fees will be paid directly from the award into the University's Tuition Fees account
- Living expense payments (if any) will be paid in termly instalments to the award recipient from the start of the 2020/21 academic year
- Applicants must enrol on the course in the same academic year for which they have applied for funding. Failure to do so will result in either:
 - The application being rejected
- OR
- The award being withdrawn
- UAL will share personal data from completed scholarship application forms and portfolios of award applicants with the award donor. Information on academic progress and final results of scholars may be shared with the award donor

N.B. It cannot be guaranteed that applicants or scholars data will be as protected as it would be within the European Economic Area if the trustees of the donor are based outside of the European Economic Area
- Award recipients cannot be in receipt of more than one UAL affiliated or administered award. Applicants can apply for more than one award, but if offered more than one UAL affiliated or administered award, the recipient will need to choose which to receive
- Applicants can be in receipt of a UAL award and a non-UAL award (subject to the terms and conditions of the non-UAL award)
- Award recipients are expected to attend all timetabled classes and tutorials. The only exception to this is periods of absence due to illness and extenuating circumstances. Attendance will be monitored and any student with a poor attendance record may risk their award being terminated
- Award recipients are expected to attend a small number of College and University events to promote scholarship support to potential donors and to meet with scholarship supporters at these events (both during and after completing their course)
- The award will be terminated if registration/enrolment lapses on any grounds other than a temporary suspension of study due to extenuating circumstances

N.B. Any absence due to extenuating circumstances must follow university procedures
- No applicant for the award should make any decisions regarding their enrolment, financial arrangements, accommodation or other matters that rely on the outcome of their application being successful.
- All applicants will be informed of the final decision via email.
