

UAL International Postgraduate £5,000 Partial Tuition Fee Waiver Scholarships 2019/20

Up to 25 scholarships are available to applicants meeting eligibility criteria. A scholarship provides a £5,000 tuition fee waiver for a full-time taught Masters course (an M ARCH, MA, MFA, MRes or MSc qualification) at one of UAL's six Colleges starting in the academic year of 2019/20.

The following courses do not qualify: Postgraduate Certificate (PgCert), Graduate Diploma, Postgraduate Diploma, Integrated Masters (or any similar course that qualifies for undergraduate support from UK student finance agencies), EMBA, MBA, distance learning, blended learning and online courses.

In addition, you are not eligible to apply if you already hold a postgraduate taught qualification (or one at an equivalent level) from studies undertaken in the UK or abroad. Read our Previous Study page on the UAL website for details.

All applicants for the partial tuition fee waiver must be ordinarily resident in the following countries:

- Australia
- Bahrain
- Brazil
- Canada
- Egypt
- India
- Indonesia
- Japan
- Jordan
- Lebanon
- Malaysia
- Mexico
- Russia
- Singapore

- b) Applied to study a full-time taught Master's course at UAL (Your course must offer either an M ARCH, MA, MFA, MRes or MSc qualification) starting in the academic year of 2019/20; and
- c) Your household income must be £35,000 or less (or the equivalent exchange value in a qualifying countries currency) at the point of scholarship application. Visit the Oanda Trade Currency Exchange website for an up-to-date currency conversion; and
- d) You are willing to provide a response to each of the following statements as a part of your UAL International Postgraduate Scholarship application:
  - Describe your background, your academic experience and how receiving a Postgraduate Scholarship would make a difference to you.
  - Tell us how you intend to use the qualification you will be gaining to support your future plans.
  - Tell us how the scholarship would help you address challenges in your home country.
  - Describe how you would uphold the values of social justice and environmental stewardship.
  - Confirm any other sources of funding you have (or have applied for) to meet the cost of your studies in the UK.

How to apply: Once you've submitted a fully completed application for a qualifying course we'll send you an email with details about how (if you meet the eligibility criteria) you can apply for a UAL International Postgraduate Scholarship.

In your application you'll be asked to evidence with documentation that you qualify for the overseas category for tuition fee purposes. For example you may be asked for a copy of your immigration documents, ID card or formal evidence of your address.

Please note that you need to submit your fully completed course application by 4pm BST on Friday 24 May 2019 in order to have time to send you a UAL International Postgraduate Scholarships online application form.

Award allocation: Scholarships will be awarded by a UAL selection panel. The panel will make their decision based on the validation of evidence submitted to prove eligibility and a review of the statements provided as a part of the UAL International Postgraduate Scholarship application process.

Your completed UAL International Postgraduate Scholarship application form and supporting evidence must be submitted by 4pm BST on Friday 31 May 2019.

You can apply for any UAL award or scholarship where you meet the eligibility criteria. If you have successful applications for more than one UAL award or scholarship, we will ask you to choose which of them you wish to receive, as you are only permitted to hold one at a time.

We have two types of UAL International Postgraduate Scholarships on offer, each with different eligibility criteria. One offers a £5,000 tuition fee remission, and the other a £25,000 award and accommodation generously provided by International Students House (ISH).
