Looking for a specific room? Some of the classes on your timetable will have a specific room number. The first letter/number indicates which floor the room is on. For example, room G04 is located on the ground floor and room 101 is located on the first floor. You can see the room numbers and floors on this map.