

ual:

Introducing 2018 Creative Enterprise Awardees

Careers & Employability

Empowering UAL students and graduates
to make a living doing what they love.

arts.ac.uk/careers

ual:

Victoria André

BA Cordwainers Footwear, London College of Fashion, graduated 2017

Awarded: £5,000 and mentoring from Becky Artmontsky

Enterprise: Vandr Laar is a premium ladies' footwear brand that merges fashion-forwardness with sustainability and transparency, while creating a positive social impact.

ual:

Sebastian Benson

MArch Architecture, Central Saint Martins
graduated 2018

Awarded: £5,000

Enterprise: In Situ is an architecture and design agency, focussing on spatial design and installations for live music, cultural and commercial events.

ual:

Bowerbird

MA Arts and Cultural Enterprise, Central Saint Martins, graduating 2020

Awarded: £5,000

Enterprise: Bowerbird, a pop-up shop and workshop space, occupied by artists in residence.

ual:

Arturo Soto Flores

MA Visual Arts, Camberwell College of Arts,
graduated 2017

Awarded: £5,000 mentoring and training from Cockpit Arts

Enterprise: Memories of Green designs sustainable products by reusing different materials to create products equally functional and aesthetic, appealing to the increasingly responsible/concerned consumption trends.

ual:

Freya Beth Jansens

MBA Fashion Folio, Central Saint Martins, graduating 2019

Awarded: £5,000 and mentoring
from Local Globe and The Design Laboratory

Enterprise: Swadeshi, a platform that empowers women who work as garment manufacturers to work as independent contractors.

ual:

Simon Sixou

BA (Hons) Design for Art Direction, London
College of Communication, graduated 2018

Awarded: £5,000 and mentoring
from Will Hudson, Lecture in progress

Enterprise: 1/1 is a collaboration between an artist, a curator, and an artisan, producing unique rugs in one edition only.

ual:

Naomi Brady

BA Fashion Pattern Cutting, London College of Fashion, graduated 2018

Awarded: Mentoring from Ibrahim Kamara, GUAP

Enterprise: Noemie Wilson/NAE Studios, a contemporary streetwear brand creating a culture and a space for young people to be around likeminded individuals.

