

9.00*Arrival and registration

Get registered, grab a goody bag and enjoy some live music from talented UAL Awarding Body students!

9.45*Ross Anderson - Welcome

A warm welcome from UAL Awarding Body Director Ross Anderson, who will set the scene for the day ahead, touching on the work of UAL Awarding Body in 2019/20 and the opportunities and challenges for the education sector more broadly. Ross has worked in the education sector for twenty years at Pearson, Creative & Cultural Skills and UAL, championing creative education and the creative industries.

10.00*Rebecca Strickson

Rebecca Strickson is an artist and do-er of things, of 10 years experience, based in Kent. Working mostly in illustrations, she combines a hand rendered digital aesthetic with an equally detailed choice of subject matter. Of late she has been working with and inspired by the traditional imagery of trade union and friendly society banners, protest placards and Arts and Crafts design.

 @rebecca_strickson_illustration

 @beckystrick

10.30*Jamie Beddard

Jamie Beddard is one of the UK's leading disabled theatre practitioners. He is a writer, actor, director and workshop leader as well as a trainer and consultant. Jamie will be talking about his journey as a disabled actor, director and leader. He has a long and mixed portfolio of freelance work and more recently co-directing Diverse City, and is an advocate and influencer in inclusive practice.

 @jamiebed

11.15*Explore our Inspiration Stations

Grab some refreshments and explore our Inspiration Stations! Speak to representatives from UAL Awarding Body, Create Arts, 14-18 NOW, IntoFilm, Wool4Mark, UAL Student Recruitment team and many more creative and industry relevant representatives!

12.00*Mental Health panel discussion

Our mental health panel discussion will be lead by UAL's Associate Director of HR, Vilma Nikolaidou. Vilma will be joined by George Hodgson from Maison de Choup, Lisa Humphries from The National Association for Managers of Student Services (NAMSS), Soumtria Burman-Ray from Lambeth Together and Anita Israel from UAL's student support team. The panel will explore the ways in which creativity can enhance and support mental wellbeing and will welcome questions from the audience so come along with thoughts, ideas and suggestions!

13.00*Lunch

We've got a yummy lunch lined up for you, and you'll have more time to explore the Inspiration Stations and network with like-minded creative educators!

14.00*Laughology - Dave Keeling

As Lead Happiness Consultant with Laughology, Dave has worked both nationally and internationally in business and education for over 20 years. Dave delivers outstanding training on topics as wide ranging as risk taking, curiosity, change management, leadership, thinking skills, communication and well-being. Highly engaging, dynamic, fast-paced and quick-witted, Dave Keeling is 6ft 2in, blue eyed and a little bit ginger and believes that within that description lies a little bit of something for everyone!

 @laughology @mrappealing

15.00*Narinder Sagoo

Narinder is the Art Director at Foster + Partners and is most well known for his perspective drawings and his unique ability to grasp and visualise architectural visions. Responsible for all artistic representations of projects, from sketch and drawing, digital painting through to photorealistic representation, Narinder's team of artists continue to push boundaries, translating not just the built reality but the essence of a building, whilst exploring sensory relationships with the built and natural environment. Narinder is also a patron of arts education charity The Big Draw.

 @narinder_sagoo

15.45*After party!

Join us for a drink and to network with other inspiring creative educators!