- Login to your account using your username and password
- Create a new folder by selecting this icon  in the top right hand corner just before the search box. Be sure to use your full name as the name of the folder
- Open the folder and upload your portfolio into it by clicking on this icon  in the top right hand corner just before the search box. This takes you to your desktop to select your file(s).
- Once your file(s) are uploaded in the folder, right click on the folder and select the option 'share link'
- In the dialogue box, enter the address: scholarshipapplications@arts.ac.uk
- Please include your name and the scholarship you are applying for in the message box before sending

The assessment procedure for applications

Step 1:

After you submit your application, it will initially be assessed by the Student Funding Service at University of the Arts London, where it will be ranked according to financial need. This process will be based on the financial information you supplied in your application.

N.B. further evidence may be requested at a later date in order to complete the assessment.

Step 2:

An assessment panel will then shortlist the applicants for the award based on academic merit and creative excellence, before forwarding the shortlisted applicants to a selection panel. Shortlisted applicants will be invited for an interview. If you are invited, you may be required to bring your portfolio and examples of your work with you to the interview.

N.B. Interviews may be via video conference due to government regulations on social distancing

Step 3:

The panel will make their final selections by marking the quality of application and the readiness of the applicant to achieve a highly in the discipline, and the applicant's ability to articulate how the Xintiandi Scholarship will contribute to their studies.

Finally, the selection panel makes their last decision on who to award the funding to.

Terms and conditions of The Xintiandi Scholarship

The following terms and conditions apply to acceptance onto The Xintiandi Scholarship:

- The scholarship will provide a contribution towards your tuition fees
 - Tuition fees will be paid directly from the award into the University's Tuition Fees account
 - Applicants must enrol on the course in the same academic year for which they have applied for funding. Failure to do so will result in either:
 - The application being rejected
- OR
- The award being withdrawn

- UAL will share personal data from completed scholarship application forms and portfolios of award applicants with the award donor. Information on academic progress and final results of scholars may be shared with the award donor.
N.B. It cannot be guaranteed that applicants or scholars data will be as protected as it would be within the European Economic Area if the trustees of the donor are based outside of the European Economic Area
- Award recipients cannot be in receipt of more than one UAL affiliated or administered award. Applicants can apply for more than one award, but if offered more than one UAL affiliated or administered award, the recipient will need to choose which to receive
- Applicants can be in receipt of a UAL award and a non-UAL award (subject to the terms and conditions of the non-UAL award)
- Award recipients are expected to attend all timetabled classes and tutorials. The only exception to this is periods of absence due to illness and extenuating circumstances. Attendance will be monitored and any student with a poor attendance record may risk their award being terminated.
- Award recipients are expected to attend a small number of College and University events to promote scholarship support to potential donors and to meet with scholarship supporters at these events (both during and after completing their course).
- The award will be terminated if registration/enrolment lapses on any grounds other than a temporary suspension of study due to extenuating circumstances.
N.B. Any absence due to extenuating circumstances must follow university procedures

- No applicant for the award should make any decisions regarding their enrolment, financial arrangements, accommodation or other matters that rely on the outcome of their application being successful.
- All applicants will be informed of the final decision via email.
